The Classic Year

Classic Poses

Let's face it, this must be our best senior class ever! We have our most recent popular couple Michele August and Kevin Mackinen. A taste of Royalty: King Russell Graff and Queen Chris Camarillo. Who could forget Nancy Pozniak's model boyfriend? Or the time the senior volleyball players tried to hitchhike in the gym, while Miss Ramsey tried to flirt with the photographer. And of course who could forget senior lounge? Sherry Rangel by the way put a spider down Mrs. Wohlever's blouse and she's frantically searching for it.

Seniors, Seniors everywhere! At the dance: Erica Cuenin, Mike Swagemakers, Lisa Provident. Getting married: Colleen Collins and Sean Byrne. Playing senior roulette: Tony Taylor, John Sutton, Mark Riddle, Darrell Palmer, John Reid, and Mark Hramla. Playing tennis: Hjordis Penton, Amy Howard and Lisa Provident. Playing in the library, studying in senior lounge. (Huh?!): Joel Rapose, Annette Muska, John Lytell, Mark Riddle, and Chuck Boesel.

Classic Comets

*Right: Cold hands, Joel?
Below right: Please put me in, Coach, I'll trip 'em with my crutch!*

*Below: The fighting comets, led by Fred Pena, crash
through the homecoming
hoop. Brad Draga and Jay Lute fight off the Bay Rockets for a completed pass.*

Clockwise from top: Team Spirit means motivation!; The Comets in full swing, battling the Olmstead Falls Bulldogs, as Rob Rigsby drops back to pass; The Comet defense shows its strength: Al Matyi, John Lytell, and Tony Leghart attempt to stop the run; The most loyal Comet fan of all!

Clockwise from above: Kim Cotto to Jack Hall "You want to be a disc jockey?! With shades like those?! Ha Ha!" The band shows off for the fans. You put your right foot in and shake it all about, you do the hokie-pokie . . . ; No, no Chris, you're suppose to face the other way! Is this what Jack left to prove himself a professional D.J.?

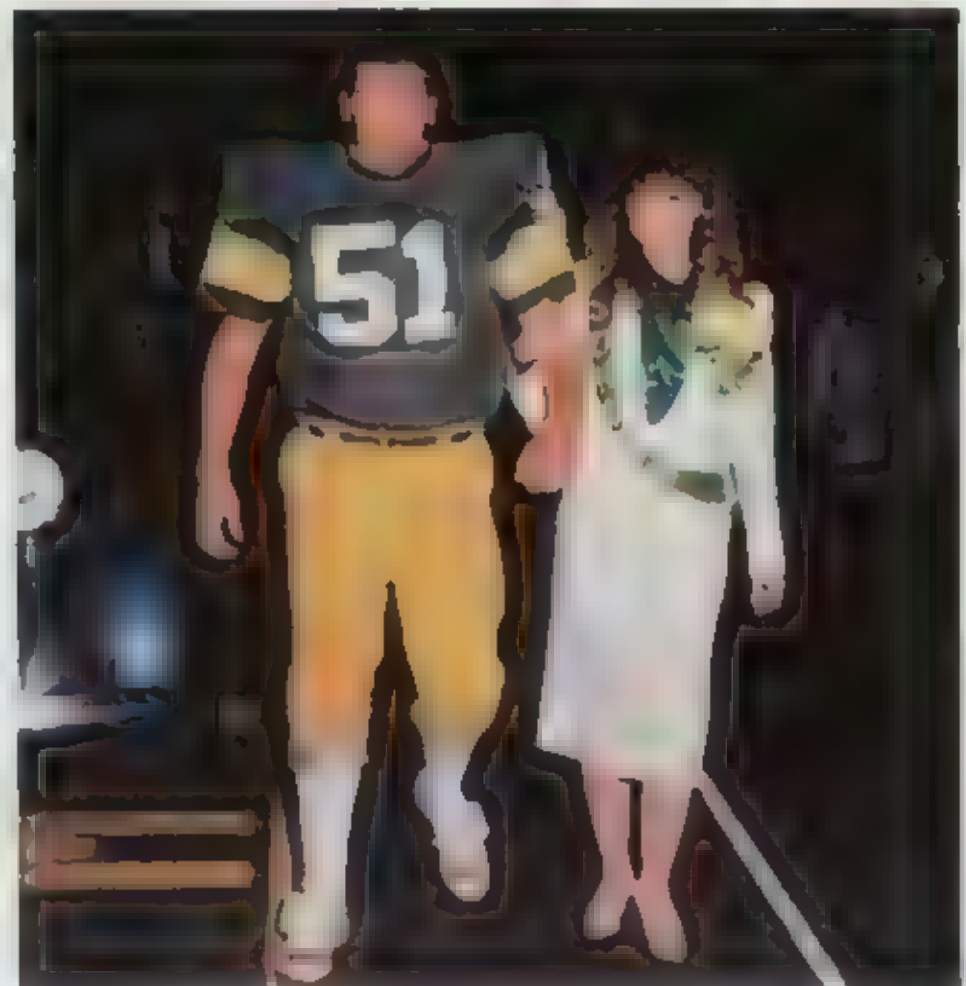

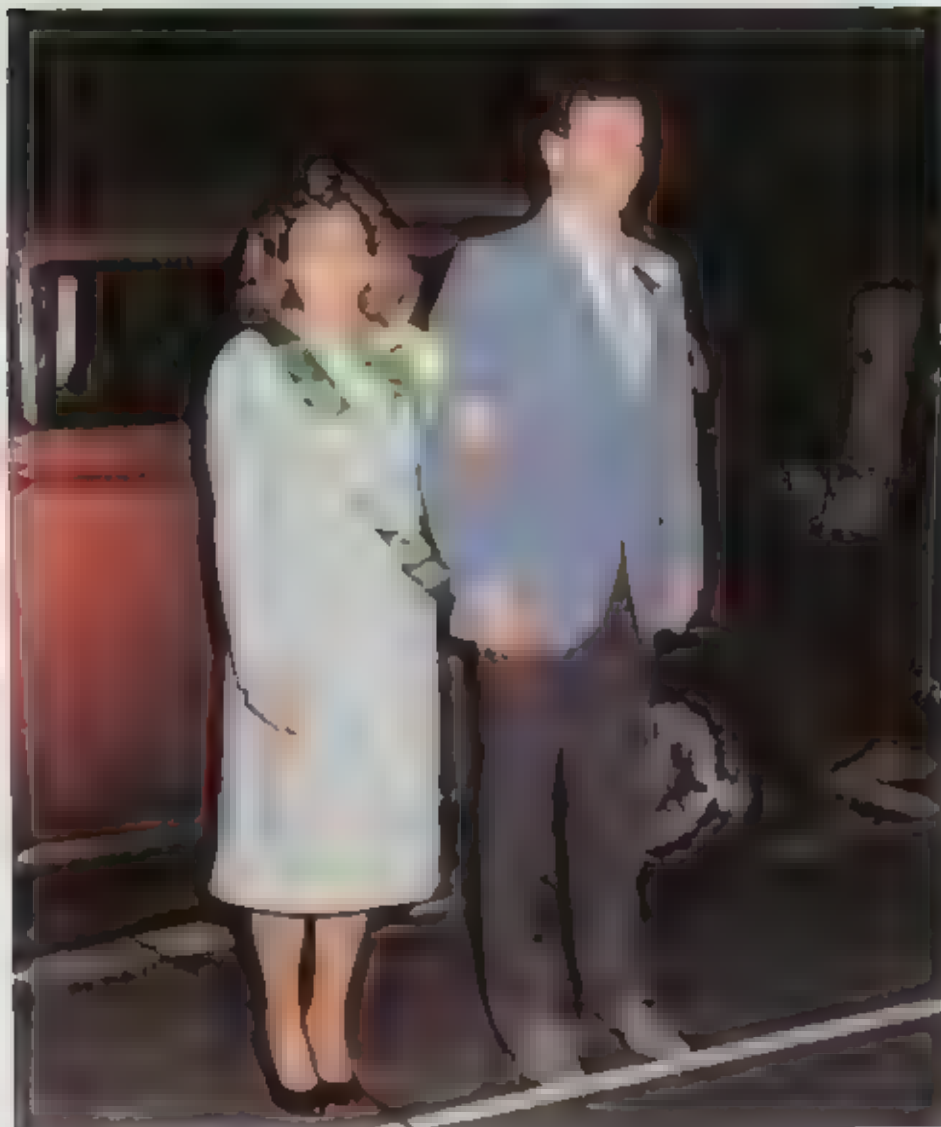

Toot Sweet

Homecoming '86

Clockwise from upper left: Exchange students Peter Dick (Germany), Veronica Florez (Spain), and Sebastian Pohlschmidt (Germany). Sophomore attendant Denise Spanski escorted by senior Matt Dietrich. Freshman attendant Heather Engle escorted by senior Scott Deliman. J.V.S. attendants Elizabeth Duran and her escort Ron Wood. Queen Chris Camarillo and her court: (L to R) Veronica Florez, Heather Engle, Cyndi Westwood, Laura Rumpler, Chris Camarillo, Jean Pleasnick, Denise Spanski, and Elizabeth Duran

Clockwise from right:
 Now Tanya, we've told you and told you again to stay on your own side of the net!! Hjordis Penton and Amy Howald stop into Rax for a bite to eat before they're off to the tournament. Umph!
 Hjordis belts another
 serve across the net
 while Amy calmly waits
 for the return.: No.
 Jeanne, kissing the opposing team's coach will not win you the set. The necessary equipment for the 1986 tennis season.
 Is Monica Seo actually doing her homework?
 (No wonder she made N.H.S.I)

Lady Aces And Comet Sprinters

Clockwise from top. Watch Rob Kubic do the "flamingo trot" past a building at L.C.C.I Don't look now, Kelly, but she's catching up! Now we know what Todd Krase thinks of Rob! Todd Quillozet (Gilbert) and Joe Stavole are steadily being gained on as they turn the corner

Prize Winning Spirit

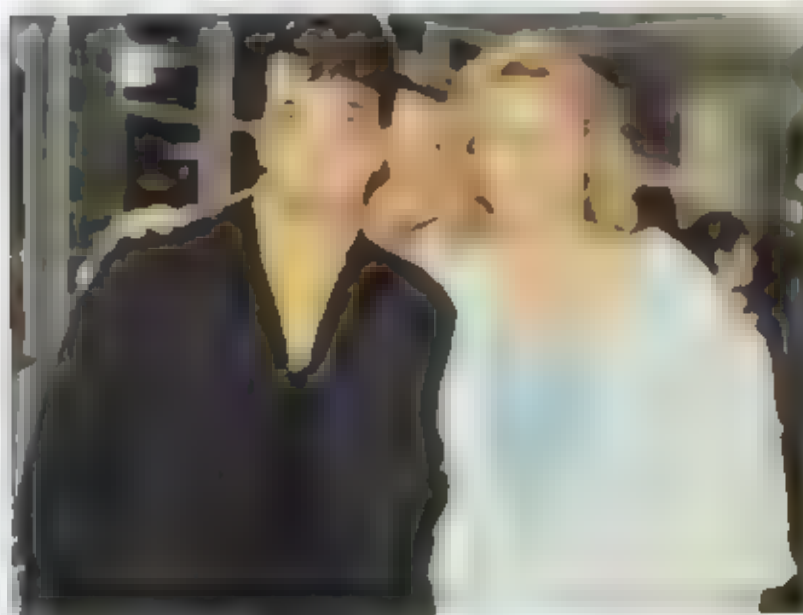

Previous page; Clockwise from upper left: Kellie O'Flanagan and Christine Pisegna catch the '86 homecoming spirit.; Carmen Marshall impresses the crowd with her toetouch.; Kellie O'Flanagan gets intense as Monica Beetler looks on.; The guys join the girls in wishing the comets luck.; The varsity squad shows their stuff at competition. This page; Clockwise from top The Comet Bell was ready to ring . . . but it was a long wait!; Carmen Marshall "boogies" her way to 5th place.; Tanya Ergh, Becky Beetler, and Pam Bertsch at competition. Smile Beckyl; Shelly Justice, Kristina Dobos, and Robyn Bartal give it all they got in Dublin.

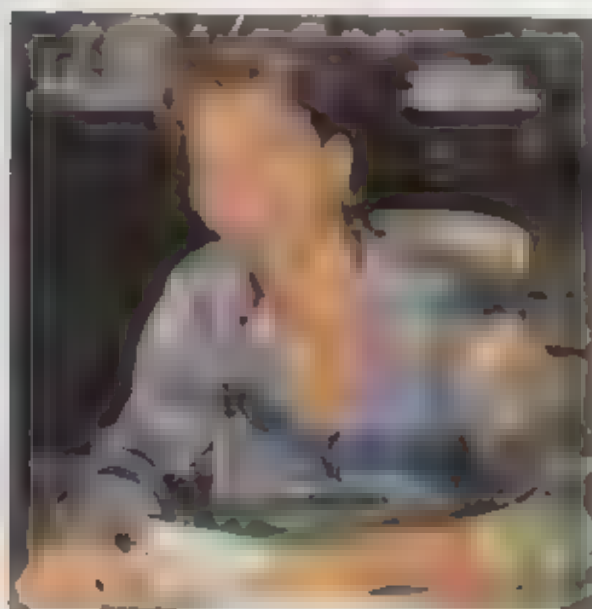

Looney Tunes

Clockwise from right: "All dressed up and no place to go -" These guys really went all out for pictures! Jon Stavole: our very own R2 - D2 Honk! Beep! Beep! Chuck Garrett, Chris Loder, and Kim Wilczak - just happy to be here Mike Schobel and his Howdie Doodie Impression.

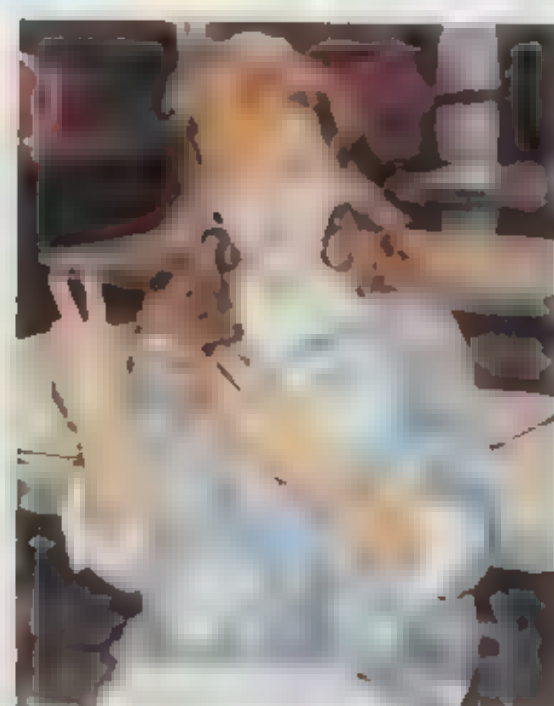

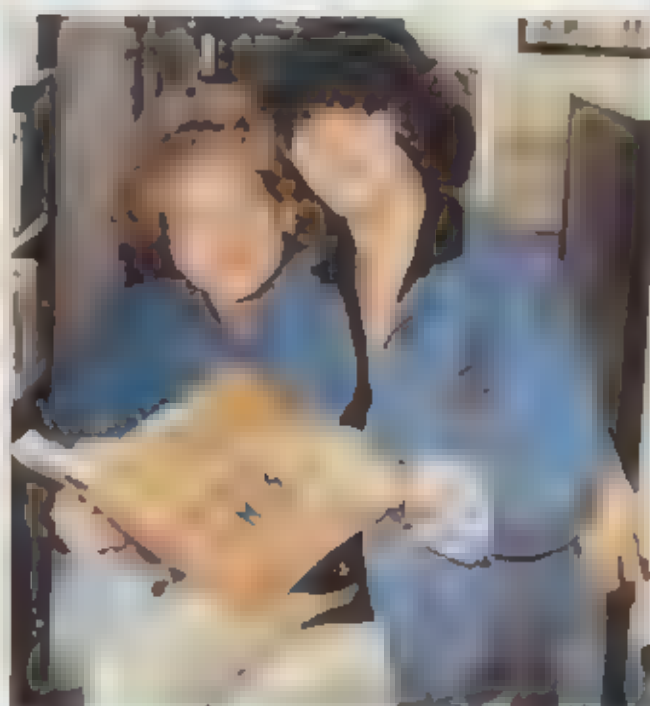

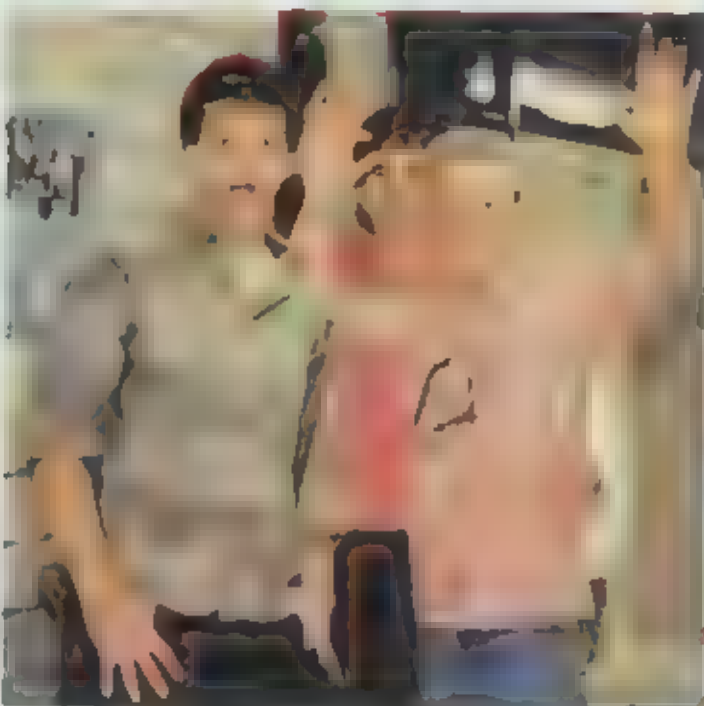

Left. Dawn Kubic and Natasha Guidicelli showing their pearly whites. Below: This is what Rich Thompson thinks of French class

Center, from left: No guys, this isn't a slick up! Cathy Martin and Mario Torres checking out the latest center folds in the Algebra II book. Cindy Pawlikowski wants peace!

Underclass men volley ball players show off their legs but whose legs are whose?

Classic Kicks

Clockwise from above left: Chris Bentz steadies herself to gain complete control. Our girls soccer team applauds that everyone now knows that that is a soccer ball! Mike Stephanchick and our boys team use superb strategy to get greater advantage even though Tommy Dorsch doesn't know the plan! And of course we have our gimps: Joanie Stephanchick, Laura Vincek, and Kristy Bauer. Peter Dick showing Americans how Germans do it. Kathy Reichert gives her teammates a look of disgust and thinks to herself "how grotesque".

A feeling of being there, watching the action over a teammate's shoulder. Below left: No sooner had the count finished than we had 'em stumped

The JV team ended their season with a 5 and 1 record, with the only loss to Bay Village by only one point. Biggest thrill: coming back from a 20-12 halftime deficit to defeat Olmsted Falls 26-20; handing Avon Lake their first defeat in three years; watching Keith Skiddle outrun Avon Lake's defensive back for a 60-yard TD run. Biggest disappointment: not scoring the two-point conversion against Bay to win the game.

Although the football fans in Amherst were rather disappointed in the Comets' performance this year, the freshman football team posted an impressive 6-1 record to give Comet watchers something to look forward to in the future. Outscoring their opponents 181-69, the team was led by Chris Evans who not only scored 66 points, but also played quarterback, completing 20 of 33 passes attempted, and led the defense with 37 tackles and 11 quarterback sacks.

It was a formative year for the Lady Comets as five of the girls had never played soccer before, while others had been playing in the city league for quite a few years. The ladies lost five games and didn't win any, but considering that they played in the toughest conference in the state, they made a good showing. Season highlights: playing the North Olmsted Lady Eagles to a 2-2 tie in the first game of the season. Low moment: Kristy Bauer breaking her leg scoring the first goal of the year. The only special awards given out were the MOP awards to those attending the Most Girls' Practices: recipients were Troy Getty and Tom Dorsch. Seniors Nancy Pozniak, Laina Bogner and Tracy Dick served as tri-captains of the team.

"We must, we must, we must develop our bust!" I mean, you never know who you might meet on the soccer field.

The Lady Comets Volleyball teams did very well in the new conference, with the varsity posting a 10 and 14 record, 5 and 9 in the conference. Julie Titchnell was the standout player, being named to the first team All Conference, All District, and playing in both the Lorain County and the District All-Star matches. Sue Odelli also played in the All-Star matches, while Lisa Barnard was named Scholar-Athlete for the season.

Below: Joe Stavole runs past the tennis courts at LCCC; Seniors Matt Gus, Joe Stavole, and Jim Meyer; Kelly George and Dawn Kubic give their all for Amherst

The Boys' Cross-Country team took second place in the SWC, losing only one meet to eventual champion Westlake. Todd Krase and Rob Kubic qualified for the state finals for the second year in a row, with Krase ultimately taking fifth place in the state overall and being named to the All-Ohio state cross-country team. The girls did not fare quite so well, being a small squad with little experience. Pictured on this page, clockwise from top left: the Girls' Cross-Country Squad; Row 1: J. Sherba, N. Guidicelli, C. Taylor. Row 2: D. Spanski, K. George, D. Kubic, Coach Camp.

Todd Krase laps a runner in the previous race! Denise Spanski chugs onward. Matt Ous sings to himself while running. Natasha Guidicelli and Jenny Sherba laugh as they try to beat each other to the finish line; Rob Kubic shows the effort as he races to his fourth place finish in the Class AAA meet.

Par For The Course

Clockwise from above: "But Coach, they put the green on the other side of the creek!" - Mark Stilwald; Now, Joe, don't be afraid, it's only a teeny little ball, you have to get closer to it than that in order to hit it. Row 1: M. Stiwald, B. Michaels, T. Nossek, manager J. Gambish. Row 2: D. Thorley, B. Bailey, Coach Gambish, F. Panzeter

Andy Temple gives up hope of finding where his drive landed; too bad they don't use blue and yellow golf balls like at Putt-Putt.

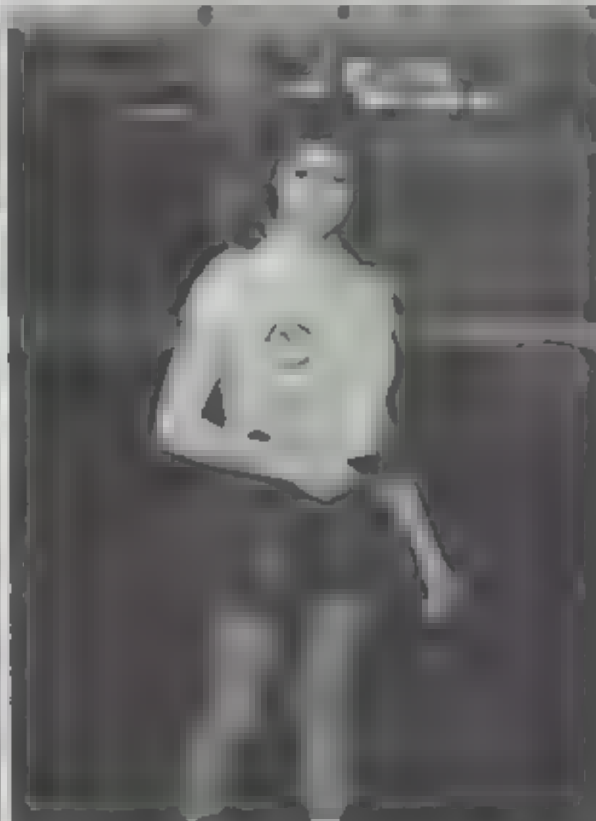

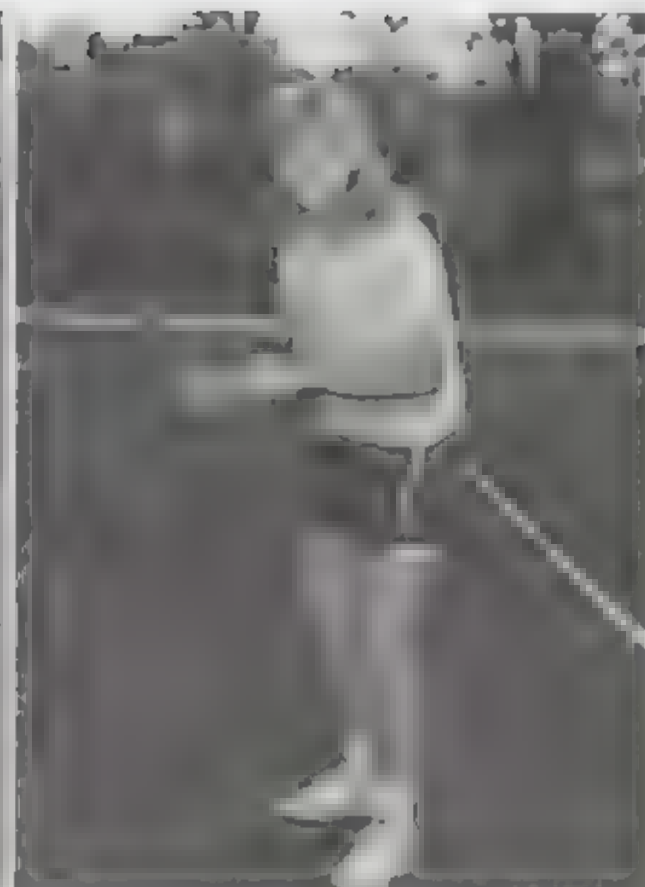

Ed Panzeter sinks a perfect putt; he's been spending a lot of time at Romp's Clockwise from top left: Hey Alison, better not change those scores right now. Seniors Hjordis Penton and Amy Howald. O.K. Alison, QUICK, change them now! No, Bev and Amy, you can't get out of practice simply by looking seductive and charming: Senior Bev Dingess.

The team's high expectations did not all materialize this year, due to lack of experience. The team was led by Hjordis Penton and Amy Howald, each with 3 years of varsity experience. Biggest thrill: success at the Lorian County Tournament, winning first place overall Below: Chris psychs himself before his match; or is he pondering the meaning of life? Bottom left: Senior Rod Davis. Bottom right: Now that's what we like to see: THE WINNER in an MHS uniform as senior Bob Benson is declared the victor

It was a season of ups and downs for the MHS wrestling squad as our matmen fought their way to fourth place in the Southwestern Conference. Despite a strong start, injuries, ineptibility and other problems kept the Comet wrestlers from a possible second place finish in the conference. After losing five senior starters to injuries or other circumstances, the team still sent three wrestlers to the Class AAA Regionals and took fifth place at the Brecksville Tournament. Chris Russo came out of the season with an outstanding record: 26 wins and only 4 losses. Chris was the Conference Champ in his classification, as well as the District Champs and Lorain County All-Star. Chris also set a new school record: 132 takedowns for the season. Other outstanding accomplishments of the wrestlers this season were: Bob Benson, 3rd in the conference, 2nd in the district, and Lorain County All-Star, with a record of 18-9; Greg Saultz, 3rd in the conference and Lorain County All-Star, 22 and 4; Rod Davis, 2nd in the conference, 3rd in the district, Lorain County All-Star, 22-11; Alex Turner, 3rd in conference, 10-10; Bill Clark and Mike Wargo, 4th in the conference.

In the following pages, you'll notice that we do not have any captions for the pictures. But words could never do justice to the memories of this season. Who could forget Scott Thodey's glorious layups, John Sutton and Alan Westwood's tremendous steals, and Rob Rigby's all-around great play on both offense and defense.

It has been a long time since we put down the other guys and with returning players Pat Bray, Craig Bohl, and Brad Draga, we will be able to continue our reign as Southwestern Conference Champs.

THANKS FOR A GREAT SEASON, GUYS! AND GOOD LUCK IN FUTURE GAMES!!

The JV squad followed in the varsity's wake by turning in an outstanding season of 18 wins and only 2 losses, for the best record ever. The future looks bright for these players and for our future varsity seasons; after all, if they can play like this at the JV level, just think what they can do as varsity players! Some season highlights: scoring 81 points against South Amherst; allowing only 26 points to Vermilion; shooting 54% against South Amherst and 76% free throws against Olmsted Falls; pulling down 50 rebounds against Bay. Jim Cairns was voted "Mr. Everything" for his outstanding all-around play.

Frosh Complete SWC Sweep

The Freshmen team made Amherst the triple-crown winners of the Southwestern Conference by turning in an overall record of 14 and 4, and 9 and 2 in the league, the best ever. They walked away with the Tournament Championship by defeating Bay in a tense, pressure-packed game that they ended by winning 63-58. Congratulations to the Freshman squad - and keep it up in the years to come!

Varsity Squad: Row 1: M. Watling, J. Titchnell, M. Welte, K. Sadowski, K. Bodkin. Row 2: Coach Ramsay, B. Thomas, L. Barnard, K. Green, B. Benson, E. Coleman, Coach Hause

Clockwise from below left: Seniors Lisa Barnard and Kay Sadowski; Monica puts a little spring into her step as she surveys the court for an open teammate; Kay puts a little elbow action on the other player as she drives to the basket; Julie takes the ball down court with Lisa at her heels

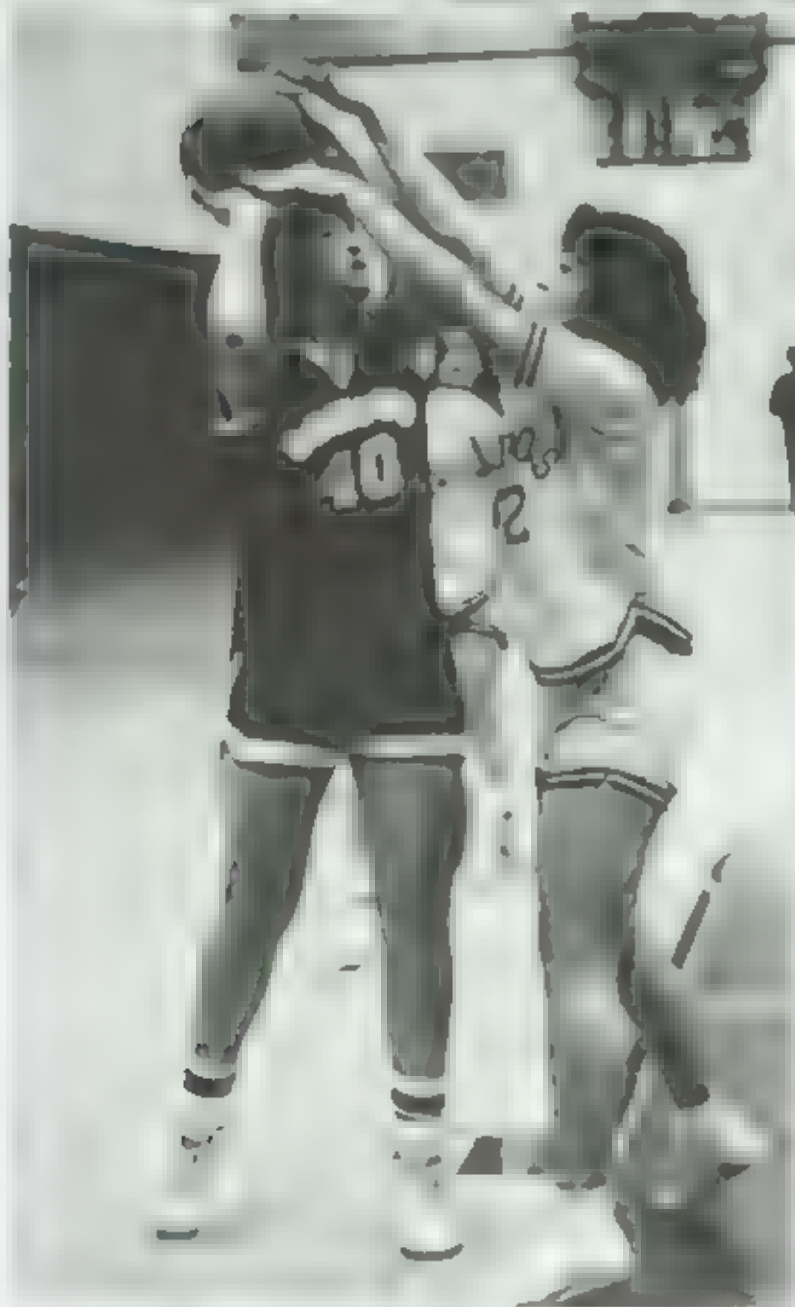

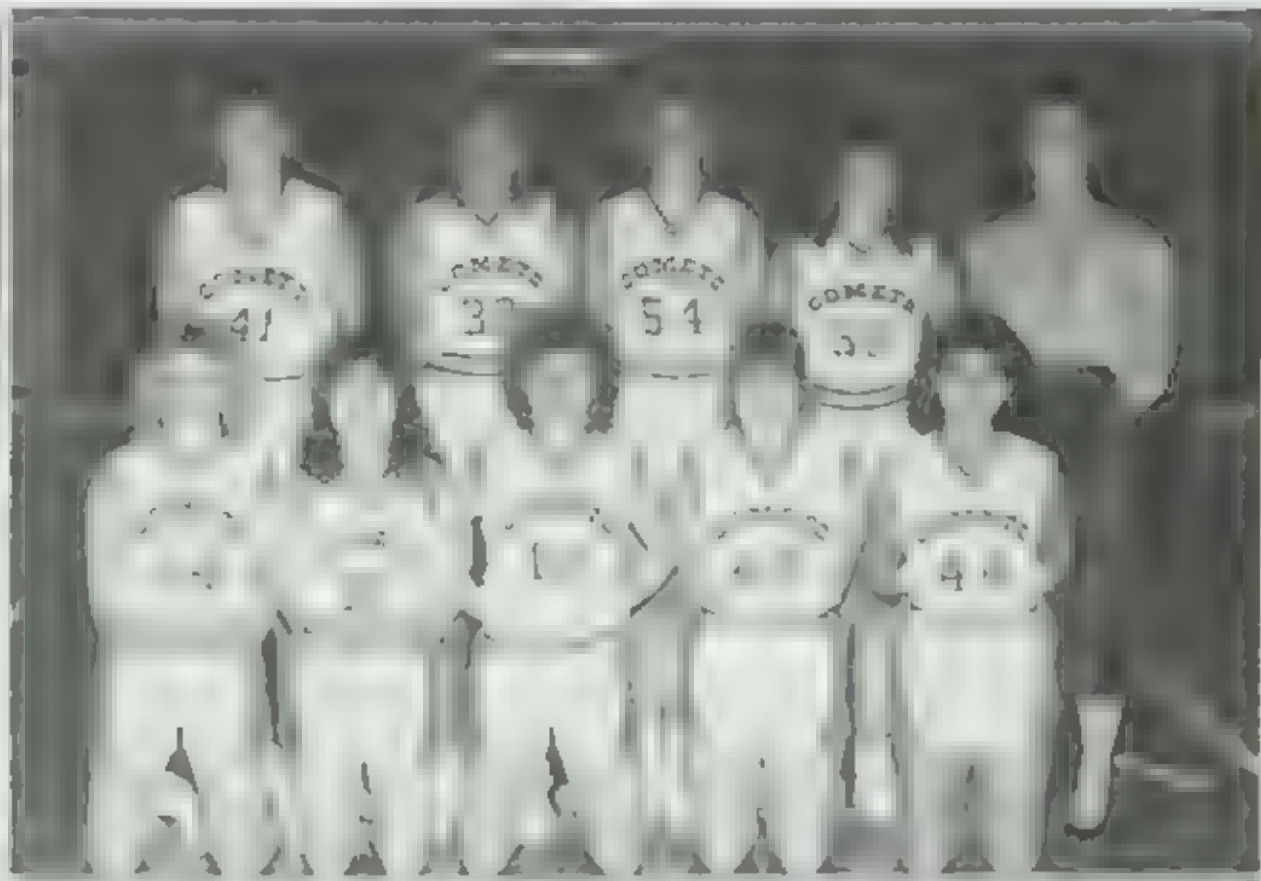

The girls' varsity squad ended their first season in the Southwestern Conference with a 10 and 11 record, showing the degree of difficulty of their schedule. A young team with only 3 seniors, the girls still managed to set two school records: the single game scoring record, Julie Titchenell's 37 points against Fairview, and the season scoring record, Missy Welte's average of 11 points per game. Their season's high point was their 40 point victory over Fairview; but this was balanced by the loss of Karen Green for the season due to injury. Julie Titchenell received the MVP award while Lisa Barnard was the leading rebounder. With 7 players returning to the varsity squad next year, the Lady Comets should be able to round out the SWC Championship sweep! Good luck, girls!

The Lady JV Comets turned a season of hard play in the new conference, losing 11 and winning 9. Having pulled three freshmen players from the freshman team, they had an extremely young squad. MVP was freshman Michelle Przytulski. Meanwhile the freshmen suffered from the loss of three of their players to the JV squad, turning in a 4 and 10 record for the season. MVP was Heather Engle with Maureen Miller and Chris Savinsky also turning in outstanding performances.

Although the boys' tennis team experienced a difficult season due to inexperience, two of its members still managed to place in the Southwestern Conference Tournament: Eric Martin and Mike Allen. We look forward to better seasons ahead since four of the team members were freshmen. The team finished the season with an overall record of 2 and 16.

The MLS track team had a successful season with a competitive attitude, finishing with the girls taking first and the boys a strong second in the SWC Championships at Avon Lake. Coach Dotson was named Coach of the Year, Kristi Keplinger was named girls MVP after setting a meet record in the high hurdles, while Todd Krase and Rob Kubic furnished 34 of the team's 97 points. Krase and Keplinger also represented Amherst at the AAA State Meet in Columbus at Ohio Stadium. Outstanding performances were also turned in by Kristy Bauer, Missy Welte, Heather Richie, Tony McClinton, Steve Smith, Bob Koza, Rusty Evans, and Mike Kardos. The varsity baseball squad turned in a 16 and 8 season with a team batting average of .322. Team Captain John Sutton became the school's career leader in RBI's (60), breaking Shawn Hullivan's record of 47 in 1983. Tuffy also was named to the First Team in the SWC while batting champ John Banno and Brian Tutkovics made the SWC Second Team. Chris Evans became the first freshman to letter since 1972. The team finished the season with a third place in the conference.

The JV Baseball squad turned in an impressive 19 and 2 season to win the SWC, due to the great pitching talents of Jim Szekeres, Sean Silvasy, and Eric Urban, the blazing bats of Aaron Kocsis, Rob Games, Ed Hamrick, Derek Walkush and Ken Fraley, and the quick steals of Kocsis and Games. Looks like a great varsity season next year!

The 1986-87 school year was a year of accomplishments for the MLS Student Council. Besides its usual obligations such as the Christmas Dance, the Student Council Blood Bank, and the awarding of several scholarships, the group also hosted the first annual Gallery of Success luncheon. This program honoring distinguished graduates of Amherst Schools was held at DeLuca's Place in the Park on October 10th. The Student Council was also praised for planning an extraordinary football homecoming ceremony complete with antique cars and an alumni marching band to help celebrate the 100th class to graduate from Amherst schools.

This last year in Amherst was for me, and I can say this without any doubt in my mind, one of the most interesting and enjoyable years of my life. When I first came to Amherst I was quite prejudiced against America and did not expect too much from this year. But the Amherst people changed me and my views totally! I was impressed how friendly the people here are, and how well they treat foreigners. But the best surprise was my family. I lived the whole year with the Howells and enjoyed my stay here very much. For me it is like a second home, where I like to spend my time. I had a great year in Amherst and I want to thank everybody who helped me during this year, whether it was in school, sports, or anywhere else. But special thanks again to my family, they made this great year possible for me! By the way, I was really impressed how a name can amuse so many people for a whole year! So Ciao

To the students at MLS

This year was really great for me. I made a lot of friends and had a lot of fun with them. I have a lot of great memories to hold on to until I can come back for my class reunion

I'm going to miss all my friends and especially David and Gerrie Rice, my American parents with whom I had a great time. I wish that I could take all my friends home, so I expect all of you there!

Michael Swagemakers

This year has really been different for me. I attended JVS and LCCC at the same time. Thanks to all my teachers and especially Mrs. Sturza who helped me so much. I will miss my sisters Adrienne and Alysia and my Mom and Dad have been just great. I wouldn't have missed this year for anything!

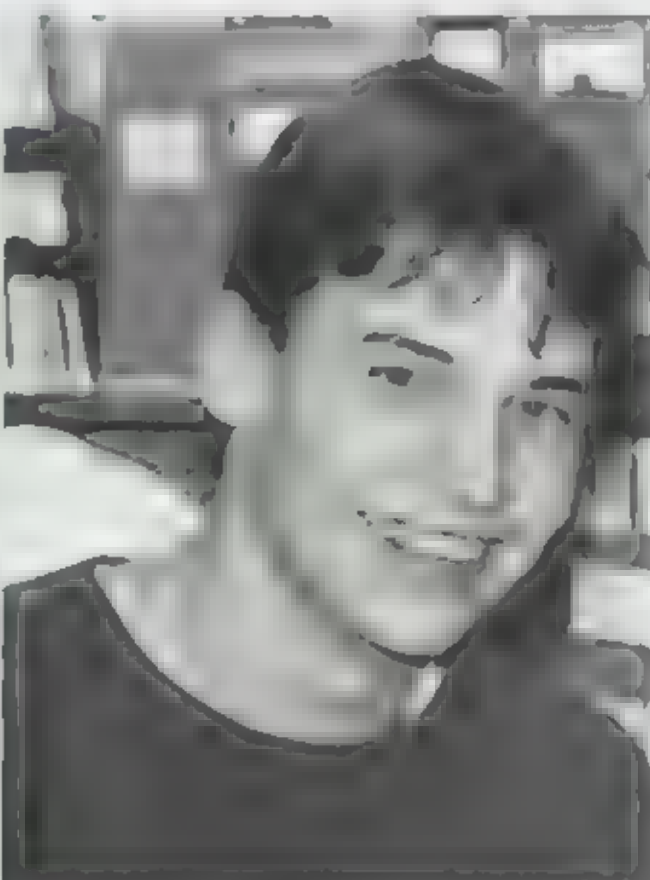

Alberto Estirado

Well, my experience as an exchange student is quickly coming to an end. This past year has been one I will never forget. I have tried many new things and I especially enjoyed going to the basketball games and being on the track team. The Christmas dance was an experience all its own! Maybe I won't have another chance to spend time as an American student, but I will visit America someday again! I would like to say thank you very much to my American family the Bauers and my friends and teachers. I can't understand English that well but they helped me a lot! I will miss you all!

Love,

Visitors For A Year, Friends Forever

I had a very nice stay in Amherst and in Marion L. Steele. All the people were nice and my friends in school always helped me when I had trouble. Even when the school was totally different than in Germany, I had a lot of fun. I had a great time with the tennis team even when we were not so successful. I want to thank everybody I met here for the fun I had.

Sebastian Pohlschmidt

Hi!

Well, this is the end of the best year in my life and I'm sad because I'm leaving soon. This year has gone by so fast! Probably it's because it has been full of awesome times. Everyone here has been extra nice to me all the time - my friends, my family, and my teachers. I have discovered really different activities and habits totally new for me, like Halloween, Homecoming, Easter, Christmas dance, Prom, school dances and games . . . those are some memories that I'll treasure forever.

Everything here is so different from Spain, and I love it here. I could keep writing about all my great times forever, but I don't want you to make another yearbook just for my American life. So, I guess I should finish this letter saying thank you Tricia and Tracey for being the "bestest buddies" in the world. I'll never forget you guys. We were #1! (Who were the dorkiest ones? Ha, Ha!) I also want to say a big thank you and I love you to the Dunlap family. Last but not least, thanks Mark for being you! I don't like to say goodbye, so this is a "see you soon" because such a great relationship can't be broken. I'll look forward to coming back as soon as possible.

I love,
Veronica Florez

P.S. Call me Ronnie for "short"

Living in Merida, Venezuela is a dream come true for me. Learning the language has been a rewarding challenge thanks to my family and friends who have been so helpful and friendly. I have learned appreciation for things I've always taken for granted - communication, family, friends, and my country (the food, organization, conveniences and modernization). The school is so different from Steele in many aspects. The students are fun to be with and we learn from each other. (Yes, they cheat too!) My adventure has given me so many places to see and things to do. I've been mountain climbing in the Andes, swinging on vines in the rain forest, swimming in Lake Maracaibo, and on the highest and longest cable car in the world. The time goes quickly and my year will be over before I know it. As my very good friend and fellow AFS student in Merida from Massachusetts said, "It is not that the AFS year in itself is the best year of your life - but possibly the most worthwhile in how it improves your appreciation of all the following years - the rest of your life." And I agree 100 percent!

Amherst High, our Alma Mater
Stand we now to thee
Always loyal and devoted,
Wherever we may be.
Far and wide your sons and daughters
Fear not any fate
Fairest school in all Ohio,
Leader of the State.

Here we are united
Now in our centennial year,
Years from now we'll stand together
And shed a joyous tear.
Memories shall last forever
Deep within our heart,
Steele High School, We all salute you
Even as we part.

Above: Our new Russian teacher, Mrs. Loboda, waves goodbye; or was that "das vidanya"?

Clockwise from upper left: "Uh, Howdie, Uh, I really hate to mention it but there's a spear in your spine." . . . "Yes Paul, I'm aware. It must have been those rotten World History students again." "Now Rita, I tell you time and time again it's S-R-N-I-S not S-I-R-N-E-S-S." "Hey, gimme a break, I always look like this in the morning, says Mr. Hause, alias Captain Blackbeard. Mr McCullough putting out a wastebasket fire caused by one of Mr. Haberfield's cigar butts. "Beam me up, Scotty, there's no intelligent life on this planet." Once Upon A Christmas Clockwise from top left: Mark Kremer and Lisa Provident think their future is so bright, they've got to wear shades. Alan Westwood and Chris Pisegna practice posing for their pictures. John Sutton: "Don't look now, Rob, but Mr. Boynton just came around the corner and he doesn't look happy." Nancy Pozniak tries to teach her Norwegian companion how to party down.

The 1986 Christmas Dance, held at the Antlers Hotel Ballroom, attracted a larger-than-normal crowd and they were all ready to party! Pictured on this page, clockwise from upper left: Hilary Bodnar looks around in panic for someone she knows so they can prove she attends Steele and has brought a ticket, since she can't seem to find hers; Sean Silvasy gives the dance his seal of approval; Michelle August frantically repositions her dress as Kevin tries to look innocent; Russ Graff has the urge to kill Amy Howald (did she put an ice cube down his shirt?); Ann (Zsa Zsa) Fazekas gives us a ritzy "Good Evening" as Frank Yuhasz just looks happy to be here. (Watch out Frank, this girl has a black belt and we don't mean on her evening dress!)

etc . . .

Celebration

ance Tim Corbett (85)

ing his Howdy Doody act." Everyone seems to be having a thrilling
time; Lisa Brock waits patiently for her date to ask her to dance

The 1987 Prom was held on May 9 at German's Villa, followed by the After-Prom at Aqua Marine. The annual pilgrimage to Mohican was dampened by a rainy weekend but the fun went on all the same.

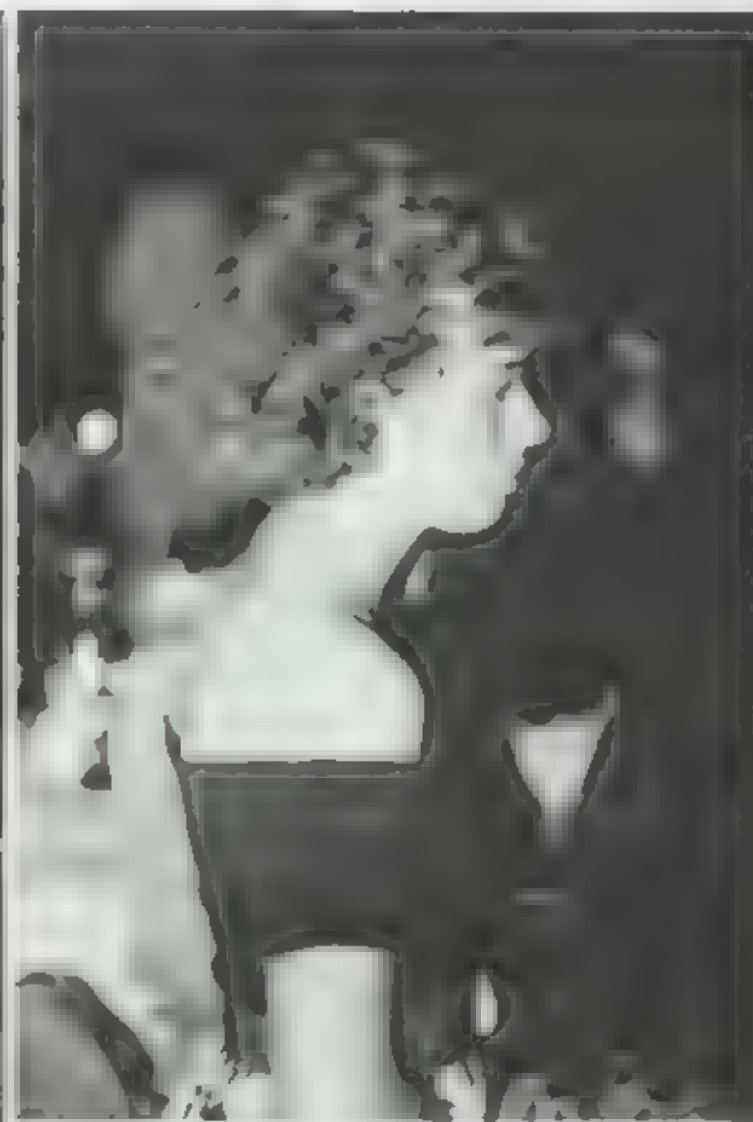

This page clockwise, from top left: Queen Suzanne and King Jason Chris assists Suzanne with her crown Jackie Syrowski restrains her Sean Penn look alike date from attacking the photographer Danielle York shows off one of her jazz choir moves on the dance floor

etc . . .

One Last Bash

This page, clockwise from upper left: Lisa Lombardi, Anna Haas, Nanette Stempowski, and Dana Bender show the range of emotions felt at the seniors' last party together. Thinking about the years gone by, Mary Teleha ponders future plans; Yes, Dan, this is the last time we'll all be together until our tenth reunion; Even the faculty partied . . . Mrs. Pete boogies with Rob Rigsby.

The Class of '87 held their farewell Senior Banquet at German's Villa.

activities

It was a lovely day for a wedding - but in the Media Center! Oh, well . . . It was just pretend anyway. Staged by the Home Ec. III class, the mock wedding was all arranged, planned, and acted out by members of the class, with some help from Cleveland Tux, Zilch Florists, Ted Jacobs, and Mr. Spieker as the "Clergyman," who pronounced the couple married by the "authority of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles." Well, let's not be too picky; any authority is better than none!

Right: The Wedding Party: Darrell Grimmett, Denise Szabo, Sean Butcher, Groom Sean Byrne, Chris Kodger, David Gray and Denise Sterling. Where's the bride? Below: "C mon dear, I know his family is bunch of bums, but Sean's a nice young man, mother of the bride Faira Francis seems to be saying to father of the bride Rudy Fontanex. Below right: Bridesmaids Denise, Chris, and Denise.

Right: "Now you may kiss the bride. But Sean doesn't seem to be taking this seriously! Far right: "Yes we like each other no we're not going to act like mothers-in-law says Lisa Provident (mother of the groom) and Faira.

"I Do (Uh, Just Kidding . . .)

Uh, Sean, there's a bug in my bouquet!

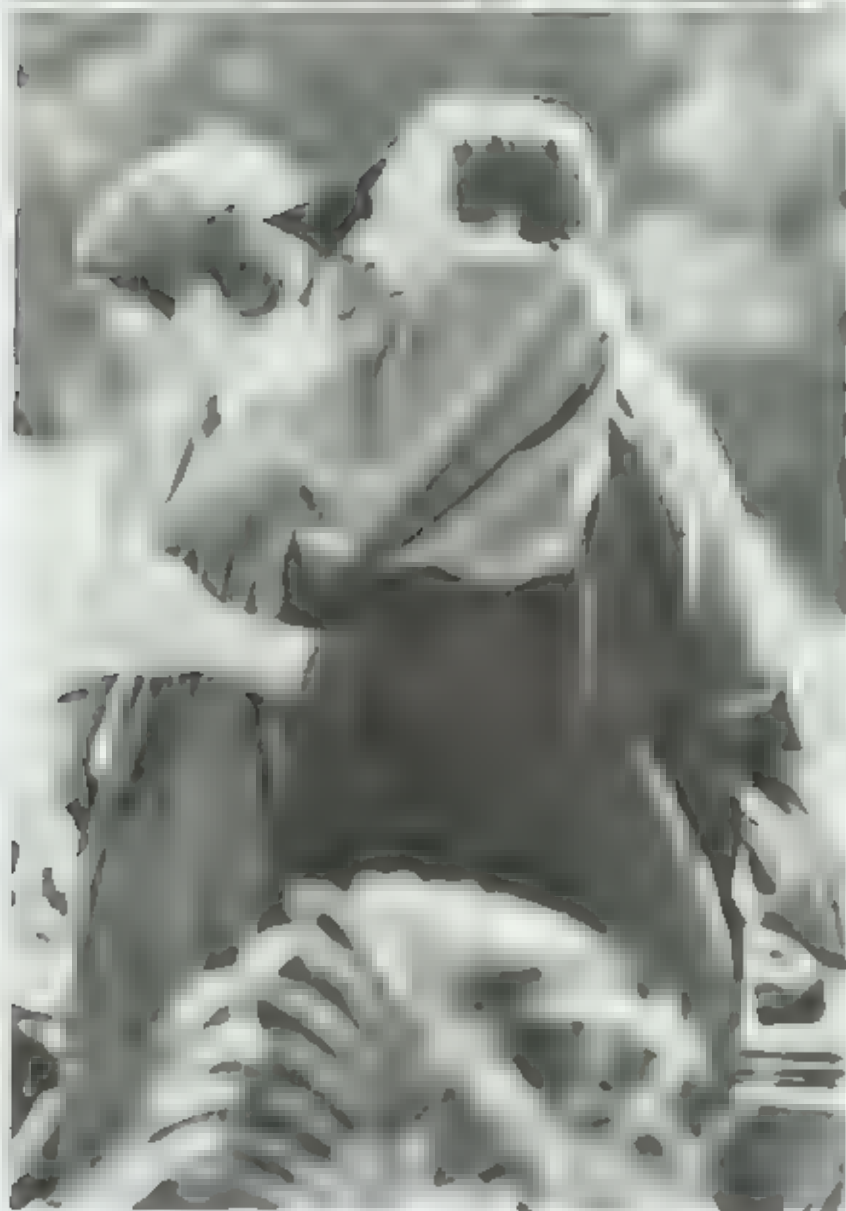

Since Dad, you're only gaining a son!

And you better be good to my daughter, you good-for-nothing!

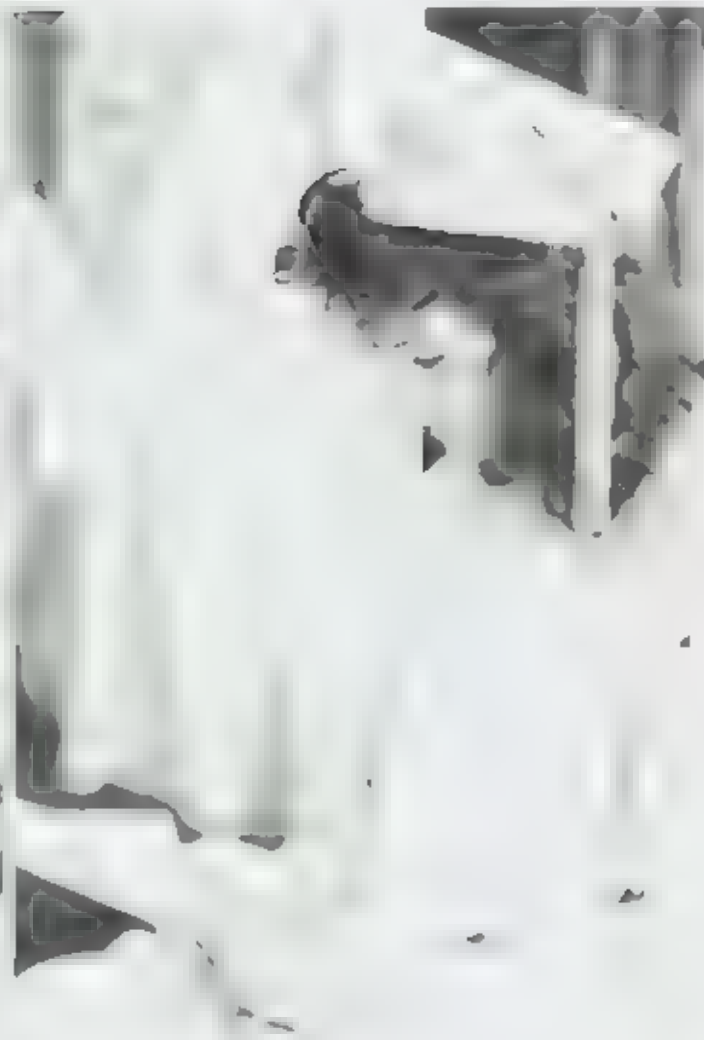

etc . . .

Celebrating Our Centennial

This page clockwise from top left: Dr. Jack Ellis, member of the Alumni Hall of Fame, gives the commencement address. Graduates show mixed emotions, some dazed and confused, some just happy to be here. Jean Pleasnick shows her ever-present smile while fixing Suzanne Azok's hat. How long did Erich wait to give Mr. Boynton that hug?

This page: a gallery of mixed emotions at graduation: Brad Riggs, Ann Fazekas, Brian Edwards, Karol Kiedrowski and Jan Fitch.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

I am happy to join with your families, teachers, and friends in congratulating you as you graduate from high school. You can be very proud on this occasion -- you have taken a major step toward achieving your future goals in life.

As Americans, you are free to select those goals and to pursue them vigorously. As you do so, I hope you will remember that your education involves far more than just the development of the intellect, the accumulation of knowledge, and the sharpening of analytical abilities. These are clearly important; our country needs the skills and talents of every citizen. But it has an even greater need for citizens who possess moral courage and a sense of decency, justice, and compassion. A nation derives its strength not only from the intellectual brilliance of its citizens but also from the quality of their character and their commitment to spiritual and personal excellence.

As you enter adulthood, I encourage you to make the most of the resources your education has provided, moral as well as intellectual. In doing so, you will serve yourself and your country very well indeed.

Again, congratulations. You have my very best wishes for the future. God bless you, and God bless America.

Ronald Reagan
